

4.3 Determining the scope of the Integrated Quality Management system

14 October 2016 09:01

4.3 Integrated Management System Scope	DATE: 25/01/19
	ISSUE: 2
Integrated Management System scope	PAGE: 1 of 1
Summary of requirements
The scope of the Integrated Management System shall be determined and documented using: a) The context of the organisation b) The requirements of the relevant interested parties c) The organisation's products and services.	AUTH:R.S.KALEA

STATEMENT/PROCEDURE

4.3.Scope

The summary of the requirements.

The scope of the Integrated Management Systems shall be determined and documented using:-

- a) The context of the organisation.
- b) The requirements of relevant interested parties.
- c) The organisation's products and services.

Taking into account the output from section 4.1 and 4.2, along with the products and services offered by the organisation.

This issue of the Integrated Management System reflects the requirements of the Standards BS EN ISO 9001: 2015, BS EN ISO 14001: 2015 AND BS EN ISO 45001: 2018 with out any exclusions with the following aims:

- To define scope of the Integrated Management Systems with any non- applicable clauses identified and justified.
- Documented procedures or reference to them within the other documents.
- A description of the interaction processes.

- To provide a focus and refer for the organisations quality, environmental and health, safety systems documentations

- To be a reference document for all employees

- To give our visiting customers and suppliers an overview of our management systems

- To conform with the requirements of BS EN ISO 9001: 2015

- To conform with the requirements of BS EN ISO 14001: 2015

- To conform with the requirements of BS EN ISO 45001: 2018

- To be used as a guide during certification visits and customer audits

The Scope of our integrated management system which complies with the requirement of BS EN ISO9001:2015, BS EN ISO14001: 2015 and EN ISO 45001: 2018.

The design and manufacture of hardware for window and door industry and the manufacture of injection moulded , die cast zinc products and assemblies. Subcontract machining on C.N.C equipment from our premises at Unit A, Vernon Park, Featherstone, Wolverhampton. WV10 7HW & Cutting aluminium billets and Vibro Debur at Bray street. Willenhall.WV13 1RA.

