4.3 Integrated Management System Scope

14 October 2016 09:01

Determining the scope of the Integrated Management System	DATE: 13/12/21
INTEGRATED MANAGEMENT SYSTEM (Rev 2)	ISSUE: 4
Summary of requirements	PAGE: 1 of 1
The scope of the Integrated Management System shall be determined and documented using: a) The context of the organisation b) The requirements of the relevant interested parties The organisation's products and services.	AUTH: RSK UPDATED: AJS

STATEMENT/PROCEDURE

4.3. Scope

The summery of the requirements.

The scope of the Integrated Management Systems shall be determined and documented using:

- a) The context of the organisation.
- b) The requirements of relevant interested parties.
- The organisation's products and services.

Taking into account the output from section 4.1 and 4.2, along with the products and services offered by the organisation.

This issue of the Integrated Management System reflects the requirements of the Standards BS EN ISO 9001: 2015, BS EN ISO 14001: 2015 AND BS EN ISO 45001: 2018 without any exclusions with the following aims:

- To define scope of the Integrated Management Systems with any non-applicable clauses identified and justified.
- Documented procedures or reference to them within the other documents.
- A description of the interaction processes.
- To provide a focus and refer for the organisation's quality, environmental and health & safety systems documentations
- To be a reference document for all employees
- To give our visiting customers and suppliers an overview of our management systems
- To conform with the requirements of BS EN ISO 9001:2015
- To conform with the requirements of BS EN ISO 14001:2015
- To conform with the requirements of BS EN ISO 45001:2018
- · To be used as a guide during certification visits and customer audits

The Scope of our integrated management system which complies with the requirement of BS EN ISO9001:2015, BS EN ISO14001:2015 & EN ISO 45001:2018, and applies to the activities at the Company's Vernon Park site.

The design and manufacture of hardware for window and door industry houseware products and the manufacture of injection moulded products and assemblies. Subcontract machining on CNC equipment.